Introduction

Fir Vale School have developed this Equality Statement to help us to meet our Public Sector Equality Duty under the Equality Act 2010. The Equality Act 2010 gives public bodies two new duties. These are the:

1. Socio-economic duty
2. Equality duty

The socio-economic duty requires public bodies to think about how they will support children from poorer families.

The equality duty requires public bodies to think about how they treat people from different groups fairly and equally.

The Equality Act’s provisions cover all aspects of school life such as the treatment of:

- pupils and prospective pupils
- parents and carers
- employees
- local community

The Equality Act 2010 has simplified anti-discrimination laws by having a single equality Act. This makes it easier for people to understand and comply with the law. The 2010 Act has also strengthened protection in some situations.

The act covers nine protected characteristics, which cannot be used as a reason to treat people unfairly. Every person has one or more of the protected characteristics, so the act protects everyone against unfair treatment. The protected characteristics are:

- age
- disability
- gender reassignment
- marriage and civil partnership
- pregnancy and maternity
- race
- religion or belief
- sex
- sexual orientation

The Equality Act makes it unlawful to treat someone differently, either through direct and indirect discrimination, harassment, and victimisation and by failing to make a reasonable adjustment for a disabled person.

Since 6 April 2011 all public bodies including:

- local authorities
- schools, colleges and other state-funded educational settings including academies have been bound by the Public Sector Equality Duty.
Age applies to a school as an employer, but not with regard to the treatment of pupils and prospective pupils.

We are bound by the Public Sector Equality Duty to have due regard to the need to:

(a) eliminate unlawful discrimination, harassment, and victimisation
(b) advance equality of opportunity; and
(c) foster good relations

The general duty is supported by specific duties, these are to:

- Publish information which demonstrates our compliance with the duty to have due regard for the three aims of the general duty and to annually repeat this.
- Prepare and publish our specific and measurable objectives to achieve the three aims of the duty and undertake this no later than in four years time.

Leadership

Within our school all staff and Governors at the school are responsible for ensuring the school meets its duties under the Equality Act 2010.

Narrowing gaps in attainment or involvement

The school is committed to narrowing the gap in attainment between:

- boys and girls
- pupils from low-income households and other pupils
- low performing ethnic groups and others throughout the school
- SEN and non-SEN children.

The school is also committed to narrowing the gap in participation in the public life of the school between:

- boys and girls
- pupils from low-income households and other pupils
- low performing ethnic groups and others throughout the school
- SEN and non-SEN children

Fostering good relations

The school aims to:

- Reduce the incidence of prejudice-related bullying, hostility and suspicion, particularly in relation to homophobia and sexism, and hostile attitudes and behaviour towards people who are disabled.
- Promote and enhance community cohesion and a sense of shared belonging in the school, and in the school’s neighbourhood.
- Promote spiritual, moral, social and cultural development across the curriculum, with particular reference to issues of equality and diversity.

Reviewing and Revising the Equality Statement

We will review and revise the Statement no later than four years from publication of this statement.

How we will meet the General Duty & Specific Duty

Equalities Information

We have reviewed how we currently perform as a school in the context of the requirements of the General Duty and the Protected Characteristics.

In collating the equality information we have:

- Identified evidence already in school of policies and practice and identified gaps.
- Explored how we engage with protected characteristics.
- Analysed our effectiveness in terms of equality.

Our equality evidence highlights:

Age
An analysis of the workforce indicates the following age spread of the staff; this data highlights that there is no imminent large number of retirements.
