Qualification: Certificate in Performance for Music Practitioners

Exam Board: RSL

Level of Achievement: Level 1 or 2

What will I learn?

RSL's Music Practitioners Qualifications can help you become a more skilled and knowledgeable musician, a more astute entrepreneur or a highly capable producer. Students will:

- Understand theoretical and contextual issues relating to music style, audience and the music industry; perform effectively on their instrument/voice;
- Rehearse and display musicianship skills; initiate and develop repertoire; rehearse effectively and perform music live; understand relevant aspects of music technology.
- Through developing the skills, knowledge and understanding outlined above, learners are provided with the basis for further development with the ultimate aim being the creation of a musician with the knowledge and skills-set to be able to perform and record music in a professional capacity (i.e. be a recording and performing artist).

How will I be assessed?

- Live Music Performance (40%) Externally assessed. An 8 - 10 minute performance to an audience following a brief set by the exam board. You will acquire experience in planning, executing and analysing a live performance.
- Instrumental Study (40%). Improve your skills and learn how to practise effectively on your chosen instrument.
- Musical knowledge (20%). Develop contextual awareness of styles and genres of popular music and how they have developed.
